

Laravel Interview Questions (Professional Bullet Point Edition)

- Laravel is a PHP MVC framework used to build modern web applications.
- MVC stands for Model-View-Controller architecture.
- Routing connects URLs with controllers or closures.
- GET retrieves data; POST sends or stores data.
- Middleware filters HTTP requests (e.g., authentication).
- CSRF protection prevents unauthorized form submissions.
- Eloquent ORM interacts with database using models.
- Migrations manage database structure version control.
- Seeders insert dummy or default data.
- Factories generate fake data for testing.
- Blade is Laravel's templating engine.
- PUT updates full resource; PATCH updates partial resource.
- Request lifecycle explains how request flows through Laravel.
- Service Providers register services in the container.
- Dependency Injection resolves class dependencies automatically.
- API routes are defined inside api.php.
- Sanctum provides token-based API authentication.
- Queues handle background jobs like emails.
- Events and Listeners handle application actions.
- Caching improves performance by storing frequent data.
- Sessions store data server-side; Cookies store client-side.
- .env file stores environment configuration.
- Use composer create-project to create new Laravel project.
- Use php artisan make:controller to create controller.
- Use php artisan make:model -m to create model with migration.
- File uploads handled via request->file() and store() method.
- Pagination implemented using paginate() method.
- Authentication verifies user identity.
- Authorization handled via Gates and Policies.
- Observers listen to model events.